The St. Albert Rugby Football Club (SARFC) Code of Conduct has been developed to provide a safe, positive and inclusive environment for all SARFC members across all of SARFC's programs, competitions, events and activities.

The Code of Conduct applies to all registered members of SARFC and all individuals participating in events as players, parents, coaches, officials and administrators.

All members and guests:

1. Shall not engage in any conduct or activity on or off the field that is not permitted and according to club bylaws and city or provincial laws.
2. Shall not abuse, threaten or intimidate club staff and/or other members/guests at the club.
3. Demonstrate, at all times, a responsibility to ensure the safe and fair play of Rugby and respect for players, coaches, team managers, match officials and other supporters. All members are expected to be familiar with, and follow, the Edmonton Rugby Union 'Referee Abuse' policy and the Rugby Alberta 'Code of Conduct' policy.
4. Focus comments or criticism appropriately and refrain from public criticism of players, coaches, officials, organizers, volunteers, employees or any other members.
5. Shall promote the reputation of the SARFC and the game and take possible steps to prevent it from coming into disrepute.
